2007 Preseason Rankings

NCTTA has just announced its preseason rankings for both the Co-ed's league and the Women's league. Rankings were based on projected team rosters, which also accounted for the team's improvement potentials. Schools for which rosters were unavailable are not included in this ranking.

We wish all of the schools the best of luck in the upcoming season. For more information about the individual schools and its roster, please visit our website at www.nctta.org.
